Is an engagement
session right for you?

Visual Roots

Hello there!

We want to say congratulations on your engagement! A wedding takes a lot of planning which includes time, patience, and even creativity on your part. As the saying goes” Keep your eye on the prize” and you will have a beautiful day that you will remember for the rest of your lives. When you work with us- Visual Roots Photography you will see that our goal is to capture all of the emotions and moments of your wedding day.

When you look through our slideshows and client galleries the photographs you see capture many different aspects of a wedding day. You should be able to see and feel the different emotions from the family members, be able to imagine the interactions of all of the guests just like you were mingling with them and last but not least the wedding couple should have their most beautiful and memorable moments captured in photographs that will last forever.

It is our job to help you and your family remember every detail of your beautiful wedding day. It is important to us that every blissful moment be captured in time.

This is why we are here. We look forward to being the photographers at your wedding. KATE & ANDREW

What to expect

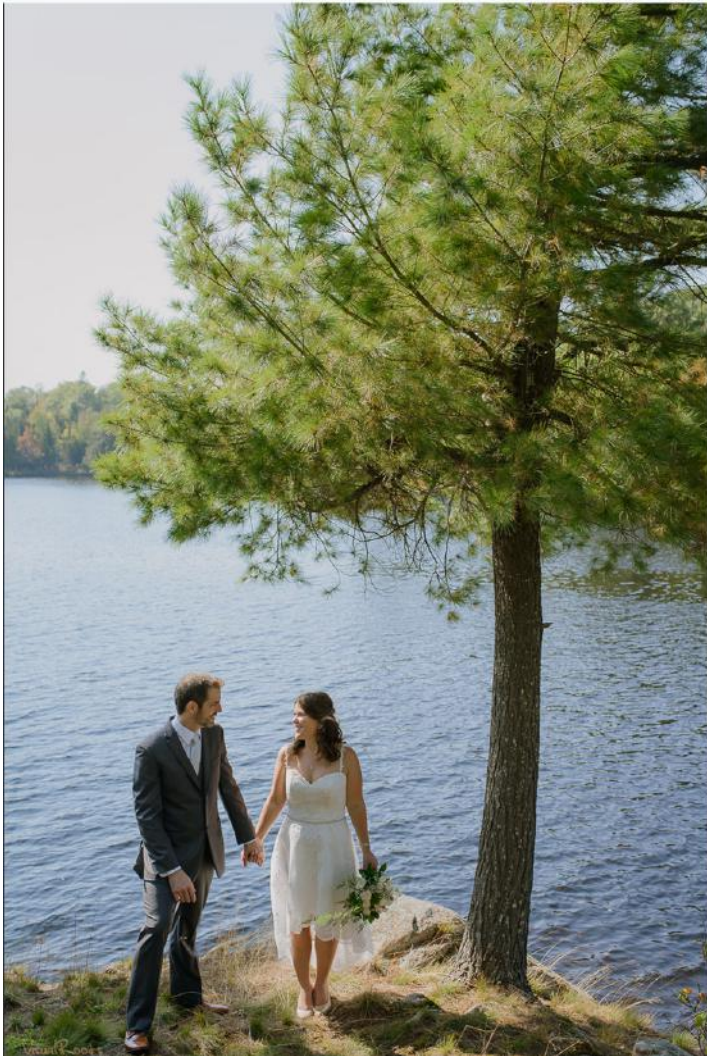

Once you choose us we will begin by learning as much about you as possible.

-First thing would be to schedule a meeting at a time that works for you best. Either through Facetime/ Skype or in Studio

We love to meet my clients beforehand so we can help with planning- timelines and develop a great relationship before the wedding day.

As soon as we have a date fixed for your wedding day shoot we can begin planning engagement session if you wish to do those. It's such an exciting time in your life and we want to make sure that we can learn all about you both and your story. So, that your day is relaxed, fun and really the best day ever.

On your day- YEAH it's here!!! We will arrive at your wedding location early and begin scouting the venue, talking to the staff & other vendors. Also, to take detail shots prior to the ceremony. As the day progresses we will ensure that we cover all the photographs planned on our timeline beginning from the getting ready all the way to your nighttime shots and everything in between. In the days following, we will edit photos, post some teasers, and about 6 weeks after upload your photos to an online gallery so that you can share them with all your family and friends. We will also begin preparing any products you wish to order including albums, prints, wall art etc. It's truly our goal capture your wedding day memories so that you can cherish these moments for a long time to come!

- Be sure to have a hair and makeup trial at least a month before your wedding. This will give you peace of mind to know exactly how you will look and give you the opportunity to change things in advance if necessary. Make sure to bring all jewelry to the trial to see how makeup shades work with the pieces.
- Have your florist deliver your flowers to where you are getting ready, not the ceremony venue. Since you never know when the mood will strike for a great photo, you'll want your flowers ready.
- Find out what the rules for photographs are at the ceremony location. All venues are different, some restricting the location of photographs and even the times in which they are permitted.
- Consider shooting your formal photographs before the ceremony. Getting this step out of the way early in the day frees up time to spend with your guests. You will be able to go straight to cocktail hour after family photos catch up with loved ones. It's a new age, so it's no longer considered bad luck for the groom to see the bride before the wedding.
- Have food delivered to your getting ready location. It may be hectic, but take the time to have a bite before the wedding since it will be a while before you have the opportunity to nourish yourself during the reception.
- Prepare an emergency bridal kit with clear nail polish, mints, a sewing kit, stain treater, Visine, safety pins, bobby pins, pain reliever and mini deodorant.
- Allowing 20% more time for hair and makeup than you originally anticipated alleviates the number one reason wedding schedules end up running late. Also, as the bride ask to go first so that you are done and can start photos, where as a bridesmaid can be running a little a later.
- Make sure you discuss a "rain plan" with your venue just in case Mother Nature doesn't see sunshine in the cards.

MEAGAN & TYLER

The beautiful sun shone down on us as they said, "I do" at the Sherwood Inn in Muskoka. Because weddings are a flurry of excitement and special moments between loved ones, family and friends, it is important to not only capture those smiles, cute pup- ring bearers and beautiful flowers; stunning photography also captures the wishes of the client. How can you be prepared for the biggest day of your life so far? Here, Meagan and Tyler share:

THE BEST ADVICE FOR A BRIDE.

"Take a moment, stand in the middle of the room and just take everything in." says Meagan "You've put so much hard work into making the perfect day that you don't want to miss out on how wonderful everything turned out!"

THE BIGGEST SURPRISE ABOUT THEIR WEDDING DAY.

"The biggest surprise would have to be that it all went by so fast." We had a lot of friends and family attending which made it hard to see everyone on the day. Which is why we choose to have a wedding weekend at the Sherwood. So we could spend time with everyone through out.

"When Tyler and I took some time for just the two of us at sunset, it was one of my most favorite times of the day and favorite photo moments " says Meagan

WHAT THEY LOVED MOST ABOUT WORKING WITH VISUAL ROOTS PHOTOGRAPHY-

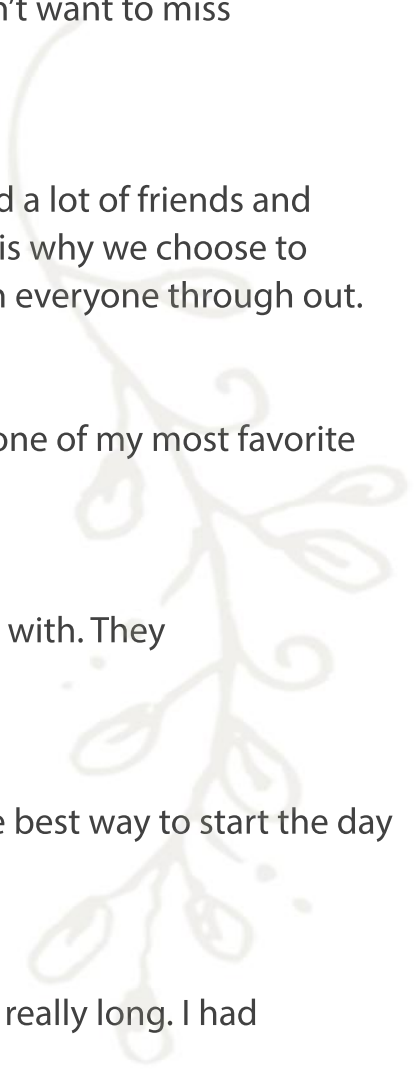

Meagan says, "I loved the fact that you Kate & Andy were so easy to work with. They made everything seem so easy & had a lot of fun with us. Thank you!!"

HOW TO TAME THOSE WEDDING DAY NERVES -

A little bubbly and hanging out with my ladies in the boat house was the best way to start the day and make me feel less nervous.

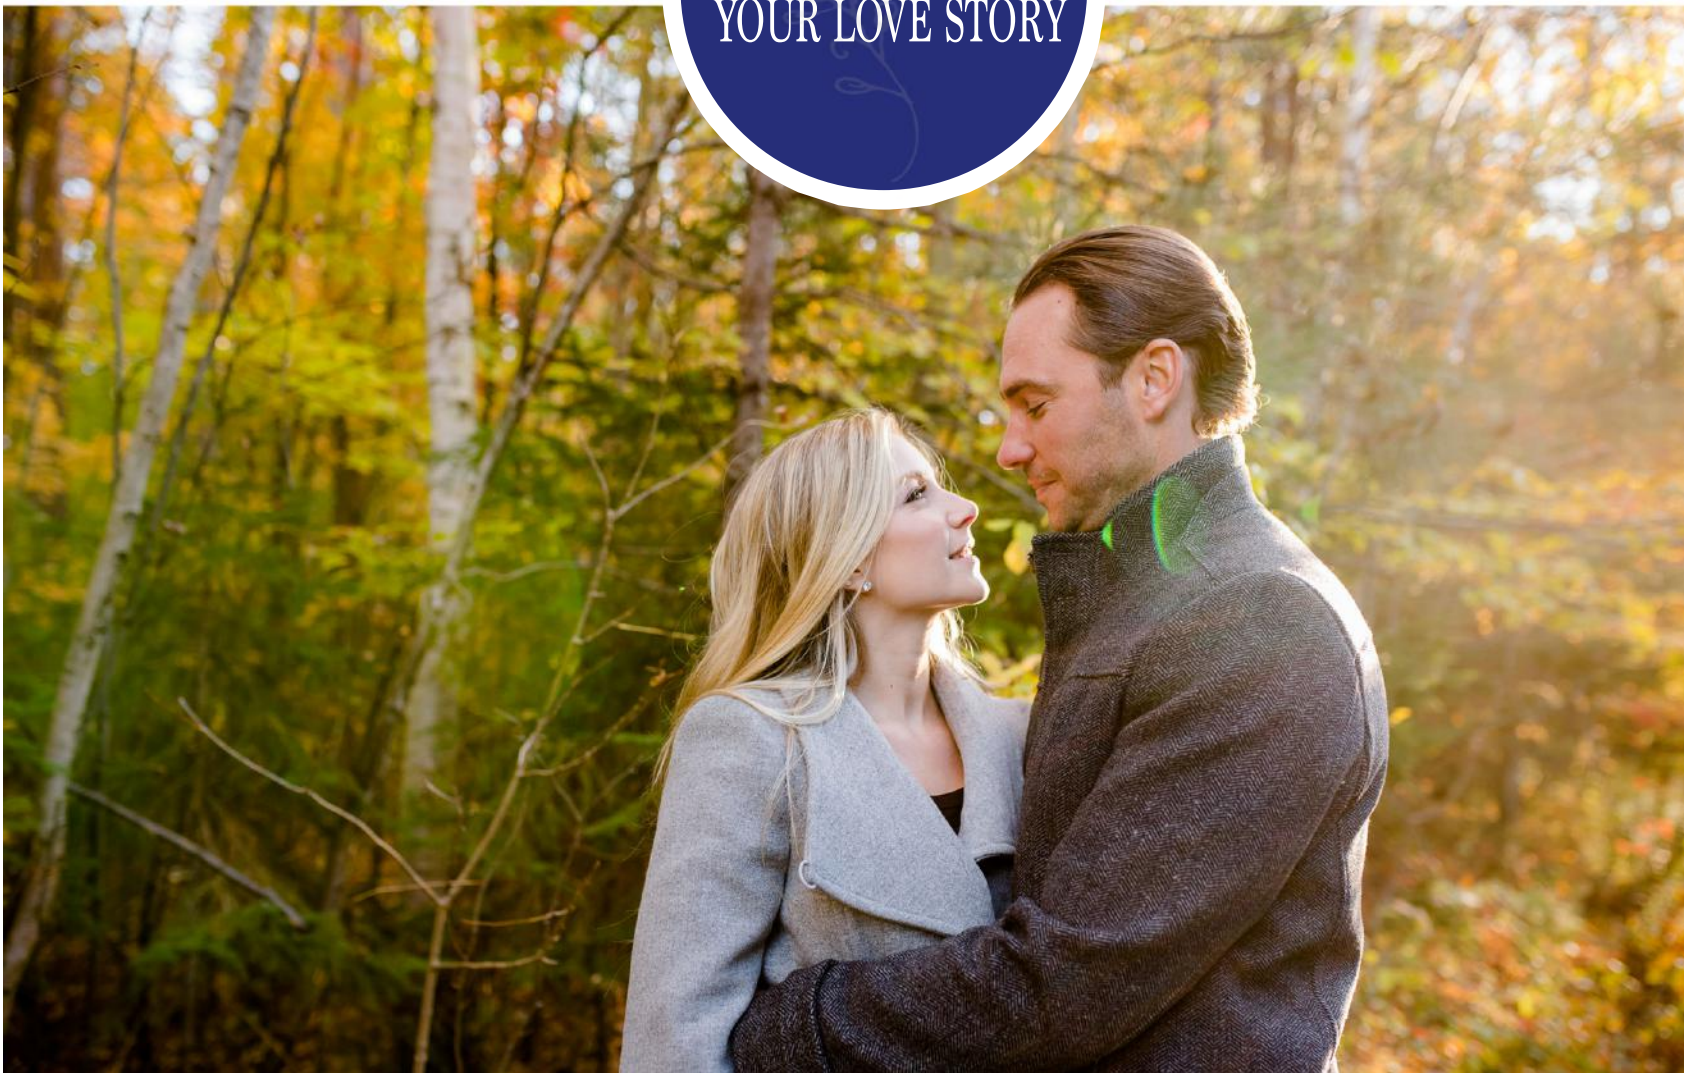

WHICH ONE MOMENT WILL LAST FOR THEM FOREVER -

"Walking down the aisle with my dad. The stairs at the Sherwood Inn are really long. I had a few minutes to take it all in while holding on to my dad.

Engagements

Many of our clients ask; 'Is an engagement shoot really necessary?' After all, your wedding pictures share the beginning of your life, right?

Having an engagement session is the perfect type of practice before the wedding day. As a photographer we want the process to be as seamless as it can be. Next, you can showcase your personalities in a more casual setting, while creating some fun captures for wall portraits, your wedding sign-in book, sign-in board and Thank You cards (shot early enough, we can also provide the images for your Save the Date cards and invitations). It will also give us an idea of what your tastes are as well. You will see that we understand you and that this understanding will allow for us to make you look fantastic in your photographs.

Having engagement photos taken is a perfect way to enjoy each other and get away from the stress of planning a wedding. Think of it as date night!

Timeline

It is important to have a list of who you want to have photographed at the wedding. We recommend asking both parents who they would like to have photos of. As we all know this is one of those few times everyone is together. Take advantage of the special day and make sure you get those important grandparents and generations images. This is your history taking place and these photos will have captured if for the generations to come.

Here is a sample timeline of a typical wedding, that will help to give you an idea of what you can expect:

- Getting ready pictures of bride & groom.
- The first look of bride & groom
- On location with the bridal party
- The wedding ceremony
- Group shot of entire wedding
- Family and important people photos
- Bridal party photos & bride & groom
- The bridal party enters reception
- Reception dinner, any speeches and/or toasts
- The cake being cut, possible sunset photo
- The first dances of husband and wife
- Any additional photos such as the sparklers
